Harris County Begins Reconstruction of Avenue I

SOUTH HOUSTON, Texas – Commissioner Jack Morman has announced the start of construction on Avenue I between Allen Genoa Road and 11th Street for Monday, April 30th.

The $560,000 project will reconstruct the two-lane roadway from asphalt to concrete. Construction will temporarily limit Avenue I to a one-way street as contractors reconstruct one lane at a time. Drivers are encouraged to be mindful of detour signage, and to travel through the area with caution. Construction is expected to be complete in July of this year.
